CLUTCH PRODUCTIONS is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to creating opportunities for female artists in theatre and film. By commissioning and producing original works, Clutch provides vital creative space for female writers, directors, actors, and designers to collaborate. All commissioned narratives are driven from a woman's point of view, and at least 50% of the roles are for actors identifying as women. Past productions include: Every Good Girl Deserves Fun by Heidi Armbruster, Bullet Catchers by the Women in Combat Theatre Project, The Worth of Water by Tira Palmquist, and the annual empowHER Reading Series. The empowHER Reading Series is made possible in part with public funds from Creative Engagement, supported by the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs in partnership with the City Council and administered by LMCC. It is also made possible in part with funding from the Upper Manhattan Empowerment Zone Development Corporation and administered by LMCC.

LMCC serves, connects, and makes space for artists and community.

UMEZ enhances the economic vitality of all communities in Upper Manhattan through job creation, corporate alliances, strategic investments, and small business assistance.

Donors are a vital member of our artistic team too, as your generosity is essential to helping us bridge the gap between ticket revenues and actual producing costs.

Contributions to support our artistic mission are 100% tax deductible!
